

Jose E. Murillo

(b)(6)

---

EXPERIENCE

Ernst & Young LLP

Washington, DC

Partner, Director of International Tax and Transaction Services, National Tax Department, August 2010 – Present

- ◆ Responsible for developing all international tax technical positions of the firm.
- ◆ Part of leadership team responsible for formulating and implementing the strategy of the U.S.-based international tax services group.
- ◆ Actively manage a broad group of tax professionals, partners through staff, primarily located in Washington DC, New York, Chicago, and San Jose/San Francisco. Responsibilities include annual performance reviews, hiring decisions, promotion decisions, and leadership appointments.

U.S. Department of the Treasury

Washington, DC

Taxation Specialist, Office of Tax Policy, September 2007 – August 2010

- ◆ Reported directly to the Deputy Assistant Secretary (International Tax Affairs) but functioned as part of the staff of the International Tax Counsel, working to develop and implement all aspects of U.S. international tax policy, including tax treaties (Poland and Colombia), regulations, and legislative proposals.
- ◆ Primary OTP lead on various cross-border guidance projects, including Treasury regulations under sections 367(a) (gain recognition agreements and outbound reorganizations), 367(b) (outbound stock distributions), 897 (FIRPTA matters), 1297 (PFIC matters), 1446 (partnership withholding), and 7874 (inversion transactions).

Ernst & Young LLP

Houston, TX and Washington, DC

Staff – Senior Manager, August 1997 – August 2007

---

EDUCATION

The University of Texas at Austin

Austin, TX

BBA (Accounting), May 1997

MPA (Taxation), May 1997

---

OTHER

- ◆ Member of Bloomberg Tax U.S. International Advisory Board
- ◆ Member of GW/IRS International Tax Institute Advisory Board
- ◆ Member of IFA Mid-Atlantic Region Board of Directors

---

PROFESSIONAL CERTIFICATIONS

- ◆ CPA, Texas and Washington DC