

M. Daniel Menendez

Certifications/Skill

Public Trust Security Clearance, Project Management Professional (PMP), Certified Tableau Desktop Associate, Data Analytics, Communications, Event Planning, and Policy Writing

Experience:

Deloitte

February 2020 – Present

Consultant: Government and Public Services Practice

- Work with a federal agency to evaluate immigration programs and policies along the Southwest Border by analyzing agency data, building dashboards and helping formulating data driven decision
- Worked with a federal agency to develop a technology deployment strategy and communication strategy to launch a Service Now tool agency wide to over 20,000 users

Community Impact

- Developed a partnership strategy for an education NGO in Ghana. This is voluntary work outside of client hours focused on collaborating with social impact organizations and NGOs internationally

Internal Development

- Supported business development through responses for proposals and strategic research
- Conduct policy research, covered various house and senate hearings and appropriations analysis for the Policy and Government Relations to contribute to Deloitte's strategic positioning in the Border Trade and Immigration space

Capgemini Government Solutions

January 2019 – February 2020

Senior Consultant: National Security and Defense Division

- Perform data analytics and develop dashboards for a federal agency to identify trends and measure success for national detention programs and community engagement efforts. This includes linking and analyzing data from multiple disparate systems in order to holistically evaluate programs.
- Subject matter expert on immigration law and detention statistics.
- Policy writer for new detention initiatives focused on vulnerable populations
- Support Capgemini's business development efforts by managing and writing proposal responses

Consultant: National Security and Defense Division

March 2017 – December 2018

- Event planning and coordination for a federal agency's diversity and inclusion events.
- Analyzed a federal agency's workforce to recommend strategies and initiatives focused on developing new diversity and inclusion policies and practices.
- Designed and created content for an internal agency website as part of a rebranding effort
- Developed curriculum and present an introduction to Tableau class for Capgemini staff members

Marriott International Headquarters, Payroll Specialist

September-February 2017

- Gathered requirements from internal and external stakeholders for new applications and systems.
- Assisted with the integration of Starwood and Marriott payroll and travel systems.

Senate Foreign Relations Committee (SFRC), Intern for Senator Ben Cardin

January-May 2016

- Supported the Europe and Sub-Saharan Africa portfolios through research, current affairs analysis, managing correspondence and administrative support.
- Drafted memos and hearing materials in preparation for SFRC sessions.

Walker & Dunlop, Marketing Assistant

October 2015 - January 2016

- Provided administrative support through writing press releases, scheduling, event coordination/planning and arranging travel for staff to attend conferences nationwide.

Education:

University of Dundee, Scotland

- Master of Letters in International Politics and Security (focus on terrorism)
 - Dissertation: "Do Marginalized Immigrant Groups Contribute to Radicalization: A French-Algerian and German-Turk Comparison" examined immigration policy as a root cause for radicalization in European countries.

University of St. Andrews, Scotland

- Master of Arts (Honors): Psychology and International Relations