

Carlos Monje Jr.

(b)(6)

(b)(6)

Work Experience

Twitter, Inc.

Director of Policy & Philanthropy, US & Canada

Washington, DC

March 2017 -September 2020

Led 14-person team based in San Francisco, Washington and Ottawa during period of unprecedented oversight for the technology industry. Oversaw cross-functional efforts to prepare for 2018 midterm elections including improving ability to spot coordinated manipulation and expanded partnerships with civil society. Shepherded San Francisco grantmaking strategy and on-platform integrations with nonprofits. Represented company in congressional hearings, international government convenings and national media interviews.

Clinton-Kaine Transition

Director of Agency Review

Washington, DC

September 2016-November 2016

Prepared to deploy and lead 350 top policy experts to perform a top-to-bottom review of every agency in the federal government to in the period between Election Day and Inauguration Day.

U.S. Department of Transportation

Acting Undersecretary of Transportation

Assistant Secretary for Transportation Policy

Counselor to the Secretary

Washington, DC

January 2016-July 2016

March 2015-September 2016

February 2014-March 2015

Managed 50 policy staff and oversaw all aspects of policy development. Managed competition for $2.4 billion in competitive infrastructure grants over three years and supervised portfolio of more than $4 billion in existing projects. Led department-wide implementation of the FAST Act (surface reauthorization), including standing up the Innovative Finance Bureau, which will consolidate credit programs and improve support for public private partnerships. Led efforts to promote equity and economic development through grant funding, budget proposals, regulations and guidance. Supported Smart City competition. Promoted efforts to utilize performance management practices across the department. Led comprehensive intermodal review of safety practices and policy. Helped develop and promote the Department's surface transportation legislative proposal. Represented the Department to Members of Congress, the media and the public. Confirmed in March 2015 in a 94-0 U.S. Senate vote.

White House Domestic Policy Council

Special Assistant to the President

And Chief of Staff of the DPC

Washington, DC

January 2011-January 2014

Oversaw all aspects of policy, message and event development of more than 40 policy staff across a wide spectrum of domestic policy issues. Counseled Domestic Policy Advisor on strategic and tactical considerations. Directed DPC-wide policy exercises, including executive actions and regulations. Advocated for the DPC across White House offices and federal agencies. Directed all personnel, budget and administrative activities. Coordinated White House efforts on Hurricane Sandy Rebuilding Task Force.

White House Domestic Policy Council

Senior Policy Advisor

Washington, DC

February 2009-January 2011

Coordinated passage of the Edward M. Kennedy Serve America Act, bipartisan legislation that improved volunteer opportunities and established the Social Innovation Fund. Oversaw Corporation for National and Community Service, including its annual budget. Coordinated the development of the plan to recover from the Deepwater Horizon oil spill.

Carlos Monje Jr.

Presidential Transition Project

National Security Policy Working Group

Participated in confirmation teams of Secretaries Janet Napolitano and Eric Shinseki.

Washington, DC

November 2008-January 2009

Obama for America

Deputy Policy Director

Handled homeland security, veterans, national service, rural policy, and government reform portfolios. Developed proposals with outside experts and worked with communications staff on policy rollouts. Served as policy surrogate and did outreach to constituency groups. Managed 14 battleground state policy directors. Served as New Mexico state director.

Chicago, IL

March 2007-November 2008

U.S. Senator Barack Obama (D-IL)

Special Assistant for Policy and Communications

Staffed homeland security and veterans committees. Passed bipartisan legislation to reduce homelessness among veterans and to improve screening for Traumatic Brain Injury. with press department to earn media coverage on legislative efforts.

Washington, DC

January 2005-February 2007

U.S. Senator Ken Salazar (D-CO)

Legislative Assistant

Handled homeland security and veterans affairs. Passed bipartisan legislation to improve benefits for military survivors. Introduced bills to improve intelligence sharing with local emergency officials, improve health care for rural veterans and services for blinded veterans.

Washington, DC

January 2005-December 2005

Erskine Bowles for U.S. Senate

Press Secretary

Served as primary on-the-record spokesman. Developed and executed earned media strategy. Wrote campaign policy plans. Assisted with paid media, polling, and speechwriting.

Raleigh, NC

March, 2004-November, 2004

John Edwards for President

Deputy Press Secretary

Traveled extensively with candidate. Wrote op-eds, press releases, and speeches. Served as campaign press secretary in Minnesota and New Mexico.

Raleigh, NC

August, 2003-March, 2004

U.S. Senator John Edwards (D-NC)

Deputy Press Secretary

Handled press materials, media inquiries and events. Launched Spanish-language website.

Washington, DC

October 2001-August 2003

Fleishman-Hillard

Assistant Account Executive

Developed press materials and developed media strategy. Handled media requests.

New York, NY

November 2000-July 2001

Education

HARVARD UNIVERSITY

A.B. (Magna Cum Laude) in History and Literature

Lyman Scholarship. Harvard College Scholarship. Dean's List. Harvard College Research Fellowship.

The Harvard Crimson. The Harvard Current.

Cambridge, MA

June 2000