

LUIS A JIMENEZ

(b) (6)

EMPLOYMENT

GOOGLE LLC, San Francisco, CA

Senior Manager, Government Affairs and Public Policy, May 2017 – Present

- Lead policy advisor to senior executives for international economic and geopolitical issues including trade disputes, the global pandemic and international workforce issues
- Managed cross-functional teams across multiple projects and products in varying regulatory and legislative landscapes to launch new products and features supporting Google's core products.
- Prepared and managed a global multi-million dollar government affairs budget and developed forecasting tools to improve accounting and internal control policies
- Leveraged government experience to help manage supply chain diversification to mitigate tariff impact and avoid costly delays in product launches.
- Established strong relationships between product, business and government affairs teams and developed a deep understanding of primary products to support development decisions and execute global public policy strategies.
- Develop and coordinate public material and external messaging to support our global policy engagement.
- Engage government officials and third party stakeholders to support global product launches and shape policymaking in emerging and developed markets.

UNITED STATES TRADE REPRESENTATIVE (USTR), Executive Office of the President, Washington, DC

Counselor to the U.S. Trade Representative, Aug 2013 – Jan 2017

- Successfully guided efforts to draft legislation and secure Congressional passage of key Presidential trade and investment priorities.
- Advisor to Senior Administration Officials on all aspects of U.S. trade and investment policy, including the trade agreements with Europe, Asia and Latin America.
- Represented the United States in international trade negotiations with foreign governments.
- Oversaw external engagement with federal, state and local elected officials, business leaders, and non governmental organizations on all aspects of international trade including intellectual property, e-commerce, financial services, and digital trade.
- Managed and served as acting Assistant USTR for public affairs, legislative affairs and intergovernmental affairs team.
- Represented the White House and USTR at public speaking engagements for the business community, diplomatic corps, non-governmental organizations and foreign governments.

THE WHITE HOUSE, Executive Office of the President, Washington, DC

Special Assistant to the President, Legislative Affairs, Mar 2012 – Aug 2013

- Advisor to the President, White House staff and Executive Branch agencies on legislative priorities.
- Represented the White House in congressional oversight investigations and hearings in the House of Representatives
- Lead liaison with Republican and Democratic members on the House Committee of

Oversight and Reform and Committee on Transportation and Infrastructure

UNITED STATES TRADE REPRESENTATIVE (USTR), Executive Office of the President, Washington, DC

Assistant U.S. Trade Representative, Oct 2009 – Mar 2012

Deputy Assistant U.S. Trade Representative, Congressional Affairs, Mar 2009 – Oct 2009

- Senior advisor to the USTR on international trade and investment issues including developing and implementing Congressional strategy.
- Led successful efforts to enact trade agreements with Korea, Panama, and Colombia, Trade Adjustment Assistance, and trade programs with developing countries
- Managed experienced legislative team to carry out trade priorities and legislative agenda.
- Principal liaison to the House Ways and Means and Senate Finance Committees.
- Advised Members of Congress on U S trade missions to Europe, Asia, Latin America, and Africa.

PRESIDENTIAL TRANSITION TEAM, Chicago, IL

Assistant to the Chief of Staff, Nov 2008 – Jan 2009

- Assisted in coordinating daily operations to prepare for the incoming Obama Administration

DEMOCRATIC CAUCUS CHAIRMAN RAHM EMANUEL, Washington, DC

Legislative Director, Jan 2006 – Dec 2008

Legislative Assistant, Jan 2003 – Dec 2005

- Managed the Chairman's legislative agenda and staff.
- Prepared Members for Congressional hearings, including drafting legislation, speeches, advised on votes, briefed staff and represented the Chairman at public events and meetings.
- Served as advisor on foreign affairs, technology, defense and international trade issues.
- Assisted freshman Members of Congress develop legislative strategy

RAHM EMANUEL FOR CONGRESS, Chicago, IL

Campaign Aide, Jan 2002 – Dec 2002

- Led and organized campaign events, prepared memos, staffed fundraising events and coordinated outreach efforts.

COMDISCO, Rosemont, IL

Technology Specialist, Aug 1999 – Jan 2002

- Managed centralized technology distribution solutions for a computer leasing and disaster recovery firm
- Created and maintained strategic recovery system for global network.

EDUCATION

The University of Kansas, B.A., 1999