

Contact

www.linkedin.com/in/christopher-lowman-spipc-ccitp-a-766a2847
(LinkedIn)

Top Skills

Force Protection
Military
Military Operations

Certifications

Physical Security Certification (PSC)
Security Asset Protection
Professional Certification (SAPPC)
DoD Special Security Officer
Security Program Integration
Professional Certification (SPIPC)
DoD Security Specialist

Honors-Awards

Meritorious Service Medal
Navy / Marine Corps Commendation
Medal (x2)
Navy / Marine Corps Achievement
Medal (x3)
Combat Action Ribbon
Afghanistan Campaign Medal

Christopher Lowman, SPIPC, CCITP-A

Deputy Assistant Director
Washington DC-Baltimore Area

Summary

Security Professional, with 25 years of military, security, and policy development experience.

Experience

Naval Criminal Investigative Service (NCIS)

4 years 8 months

Deputy Assistant Director (Security and Facilities)

March 2020 - Present (3 years 6 months)

Chief Of Security

January 2019 - March 2020 (1 year 3 months)

Quantico, Virginia

Responsible for the management of an agency wide Security and Insider Threat Program. Responsible for the protection of classified and sensitive materials, vetting of personnel, managing access to classified and sensitive materials, and providing oversight of security operations at over 200 facilities worldwide.

Leads a team of senior security professionals, responsible for Personnel Security, Information Security, Industrial Security, Physical Security, SAP Security, SCI Security, and Insider Threat Programs.

United States Marine Corps

Program Manager

May 2015 - December 2018 (3 years 8 months)

Pentagon, Washington DC

Served as the Program Manager of the Marine Corps Insider Threat and Security Training Program, Security Division, Plans, Policies, and Operations, Headquarters U.S. Marine Corps, Washington, DC.

Responsible for the planning, administration, development, coordination and implementation of United States Marine Corps Insider Threat Program and the Security Training Program throughout the Marine Corps.

Responsible for the development of the Marine Corps Insider Threat Program, designed to deter, detect, and mitigate potential insider threats throughout the Marine Corps. Responsible for leading a team of professionals, developing policy, developing standard operating procedures, and establishing strategic initiatives which resulted in achieving the assessment of IOC, by the National Insider Threat Task Force.

Coordinated with outside agencies, other services and internal Marine Corps organizations to ensure seamless integration of emerging requirements into current Security Training systems and programs; tracks the initiation, formulation, and execution of associated projects; oversees the acquisition management activities of programs specifically designed to support Security training processes; ensured the development of appropriate training for Marines on all aspects of Information, Personnel, and Industrial Security processes and issues along with the implementation of the Controlled Unclassified Information (CUI) program and other areas of sensitive information; and ensured the successful integration of Security Training processes into Marine Corps Orders and published guidance.

Phacil, Inc

Security Specialist

April 2014 - April 2015 (1 year 1 month)

Quantico VA

Assists the Special Security Officer in ensuring compliance with physical, information and personnel security standards and programs as set forth in pertinent directives, ICDs, DCIDs, DoD Manuals and Instructions that govern the protection of classified information, Sensitive Compartmented Information and accesses.

Assists the Special Security Officer with operations security management functions, administrative support and oversight to protect MCIA personnel, property, equipment, and facilities from hostile and criminal activities, as well as managing the electronic background investigation program using knowledge of administrative security requirements, conducting and reviewing prescreening interviews and making recommendations on clearance acceptability, managing personnel security records and databases, and incoming/outgoing visitor certification program.

CMS,LLC

Security Specialist

April 2013 - April 2014 (1 year 1 month)

Quantico, VA

Assists the Special Security Officer in ensuring compliance with physical, information and personnel security standards and programs as set forth in pertinent directives, ICDs, DCIDs, DoD Manuals and Instructions that govern the protection of classified information, Sensitive Compartmented Information and accesses.

Assists the Special Security Officer with operations security management functions, administrative support and oversight to protect MCIA personnel, property, equipment, and facilities from hostile and criminal activities, as well as managing the electronic background investigation program using knowledge of administrative security requirements, conducting and reviewing prescreening interviews and making recommendations on clearance acceptability, managing personnel security records and databases, and incoming/outgoing visitor certification program.

United States Marine Corps

20 years 2 months

Security Professional

May 2011 - August 2013 (2 years 4 months)

3rd MLG, Okinawa, Japan

Operations manager for the 3rd Marine Logistics Group Information and Personnel Security Program. Supervises a staff of personnel, responsible for providing administrative and regulatory oversight to over 5200 personnel at 12 separate units, based throughout Japan and Hawaii, encompassing Information, Personnel, Industrial and Physical Security Programs.

Provides security awareness training, specialized briefs and operational training as required/requested for 12 separate units in 3 geographical locations to maintain compliance with directives and increase security awareness.

Operations Chief

February 2010 - May 2011 (1 year 4 months)

3rd MLG, Okinawa, Japan

Coordinated with Regimental Operations Officers/ Operations Chiefs, movement control coordinators, and planners to track the movement of the twelve units belonging to 3D Marine Logistics Group for exercises within the Pacific Theater. and maintained daily accountability of all personnel and equipment deployed as individual augments and units supporting OIF, OEF, OND.

Served as the Operations Chief, Operations Officer and Watch Chief for the MLG Combat Operations Center in both garrison, deployed and operational environments, managing watch teams and personnel.

Tactical Readiness and Training Chief

February 2009 - February 2010 (1 year 1 month)

3d MLG, Okinawa, Japan

Responsible for coordinating, planning and executing the Combat Skills Infantry Oriented Training for all 3D MLG units in functional combat areas within the Force Generation, Pre-deployment Training Continuum, convoy operations and weapons systems organic to the infantry. Resulting in the direct support and execution of 9 training evolutions, for over 800 Marines and Sailors, in convoy operations and crew served weapons employment in preparations for deployment to Iraq and Afghanistan.

Served as the Readiness Officer for the MLG which required monthly assessments and briefings to the Commanding General on the MLG's status of readiness, utilizing the Status of Readiness and Training Systems (SORTS) and Defense Readiness Reporting System (DRRS). Subsequently trained all readiness officers and chiefs within the MLG during the transition from SORTS and DRRS systems to Defense Readiness Reporting System – Marine Corps (DRRS-MC).

Planned, coordinated and executed six Japanese Officer Exchange Program events between the Marine Logistics Group and the Japanese Self Defense Force on Okinawa and main land Japan.

Company Gunnery Sergeant

July 1993 - January 2009 (15 years 7 months)

3rd Battalion, 6th Marines, Camp Lejeune, NC

Served as the senior tactical adviser, logistical adviser and training chief to the commanding officer of Headquarters Company and India Company, organizations totaling 180+ .

Advised the commander on force protection measures, implementation and operational risk management requirements that minimized threats resulting in no successful attacks on any post under unit control.

Directly responsible for the security of Camp Baharia, Iraq. Trained and supervised a security force of 120 personnel, from three separate organizations on weapons employment, tactical movement, physical security measures, access control, and guard procedures.

Education

DeVry University's Keller Graduate School of Management-Virginia
Master of Business Administration (MBA), Program
Management · (2014 - 2016)

Ashford University
Bachelor of Arts, Homeland Security/Emergency Management · (2010 - 2013)

Expeditionary Warfare School
Complete, Expeditionary Operations · (2009 - 2011)