

Contact

www.linkedin.com/in/jennifer-bumgarner-042b439 (LinkedIn)

Top Skills

Economic Development
Policy Analysis
Government Relations

Jennifer Bumgarner

Principal Deputy Assistant Secretary for Congressional and Intergovernmental Affairs

Raleigh-Durham-Chapel Hill Area

Summary

Mission-driven, results-oriented leader with deep experience in philanthropy, government, advocacy, and public policy. Adept at navigating complex situations. Able to simultaneously hold the big picture and delve deep into the details. Known for collaboration, working across differences, building strong relationships, and translating ambition into actionable plans. People- and team-centered manager who values organizational culture and fosters learning through successes and challenges.

Experience

U.S. Department of Energy (DOE)

1 year 9 months

Principal Deputy Assistant Secretary for Congressional and Intergovernmental Affairs

December 2021 - Present (1 year 9 months)

Raleigh-Durham-Chapel Hill Area

Principal Deputy Assistant Secretary for Congressional and Intergovernmental Affairs

December 2021 - Present (1 year 9 months)

Raleigh-Durham-Chapel Hill Area

Energy Foundation

10 years 4 months

Senior Regional Director for the Southeast, Energy Foundation

October 2019 - December 2021 (2 years 3 months)

Raleigh-Durham, North Carolina Area

Program Director, Southeast Campaigns

September 2017 - October 2019 (2 years 2 months)

Raleigh-Durham, North Carolina Area

Southeast Regional Program Director

September 2011 - September 2017 (6 years 1 month)

North Carolina Department of Commerce
Assistant Secretary for Energy
July 2010 - September 2011 (1 year 3 months)

Office of the Governor of North Carolina
5 years 3 months

Deputy Policy Director
October 2009 - July 2010 (10 months)
Raleigh, NC

Policy Advisor
May 2005 - June 2010 (5 years 2 months)

Education

University of Oxford
M.Sc, Social Policy · (1999 - 2002)

Wake Forest University
BA, Politics · (1995 - 1999)