

Susannah Marshall

(b) (6)

EDUCATION

Harvard Law School, Cambridge, MA

May 2019

Activities: Harvard International Law Journal, Executive Editor for Submissions and Student Note Editor
Representative for HLS Democrats, Election Protection Monitor (2016 and 2018), Harvard Immigration Project
Clinical Experience: Democracy and the Rule of Law Clinic. Harvard International Human Rights Clinic

Bachelor of Arts, The University of Chicago, Chicago, IL

June 2014

B.A. in History with Minors in Human Rights and East Asian Studies. GPA: 3.85

Honors: Phi Beta Kappa, Departmental honors and general honors, Dean's List, National Merit Scholar
University of Chicago Careers in Public and Social Services Scholar, awarded on the basis of academic achievement and demonstrable commitment to public service

Thesis: The Organization of Security and Co-operation in Europe: American Strategy at Belgrade and Madrid. Received departmental honors for excellence in research.

WORK EXPERIENCE

Minnesota DFL Coordinated Campaign, Minneapolis, Minnesota

Summer/Fall 2020

Deputy Voter Protection Director

Developed and ran the Coordinated Campaign's Minnesota Voter Protection program. Expanded voting opportunities across the state. Managed and trained a team of two direct reports and 1200 volunteers. Acted as a member of the legal boiler room during the primary, early vote period, and general election, resolving more than 5800 voter suppression issues. Conducted legal research and kept abreast of developing litigation.

European Bank for Reconstruction and Development, London, United Kingdom

Summer 2018

Policy and Ethics Intern

Contributed to EBRD's policy review on how to prevent tax evasion, terrorist financing, and money laundering in its operations. Reviewed EBRD projects for suspicious tax structures. Prepared EBRD staff for how to avoid ethical misconduct using Code of Conduct training. Led research into issues in capital markets compliance.

American Bar Association Rule of Law Initiative in Armenia, Yerevan, Armenia

Summer 2017

Legal Intern

Analyzed data from a survey of refugees and internally displaced people to determine if the government of the Republic of Armenia was meeting its legal obligations towards them. Wrote a report for the American Bar Association and U.S. Department of State Bureau of Population, Refugees, and Migration on the integration needs of Syrian-Armenians in Armenia.

Office of Senator Al Franken, Washington, D.C.

2015- 2016

Legislative Correspondent

Championed legislation and gave vote recommendations on issues including energy, the environment, veterans' affairs, and international trade. Discussed critical concerns with stakeholders and constituents to ensure they were heard by the Senator. Wrote substantive letters expressing policy concerns to federal agencies including the U.S. Trade Representative and EPA.

Staff Assistant

2014-2015

Managed correspondence. Responded to constituent concerns about policy. Compiled press clips for 7 AM distribution.

Intern, Office of Multilateral Affairs, Bureau of East Asian and Pacific Affairs, Department of State

Summer 2013

Drafted policy recommendations for U.S. action in multilateral institutions such as ASEAN. Prepared U.S. Ambassadors and embassy staff for assignments in the region. Planned state events, including a reception for foreign ambassadors.

RESEARCH EXPERIENCE

Writer, Global Anticorruption Blog, Cambridge, MA

2017- 2018

Researched and wrote articles on anticorruption activism around the world for the internationally-read site. Published on topics including the post-Maidan Ukrainian government, U.S. transparency laws, and Cambodian prisons.

Rising Experts Program in Russia and Eurasia, Center on Global Interests, Washington D.C.

2015-2016

Selected as a member of the Center on Global Interests' competitive Rising Experts program. Led discussions with experts on Russia and Eurasia about American interests in the field.

SKILLS

Language: Intermediate proficiency Spanish, French, and Mandarin Chinese

Interests: Aviation (VFR-certified private pilot), competitive alpine skiing, scuba diving (PADI-certified)