

Contact

www.linkedin.com/in/william-ihlenfeld-331894197 (LinkedIn)

Top Skills

Law
Investigation
Cyber

William Ihlenfeld

United States Attorney
Wheeling, West Virginia, United States

Summary

United States Attorney, Northern District of West Virginia

Experience

U.S. Department of Justice
United States Attorney
October 2021 - Present (2 years)
West Virginia, United States

Bowles Rice LLP
Attorney
October 2019 - October 2021 (2 years 1 month)
West Virginia

Leader of White Collar Practice Group with focus on full range of federal criminal matters and civil enforcement actions in Pennsylvania, Ohio, and West Virginia.

Representation of physicians, physician groups, pharmacists, hospitals, health insurance companies, and medical laboratories in defense of criminal, civil and regulatory matters, to include Stark Law claims, Anti-Kickback and health care fraud.

Member of firm's Cybersecurity and Information Privacy Group.

Bailey Glasser
Attorney
January 2017 - September 2019 (2 years 9 months)
West Virginia

Representation of healthcare providers, governmental agencies, and individuals in civil and criminal litigation.

White-collar criminal defense in Ohio, West Virginia, and Pennsylvania.

Complex civil litigation throughout the country.

U.S. Department of Justice
United States Attorney
August 2010 - January 2017 (6 years 6 months)
Wheeling, West Virginia Area

Coordinated prosecution of all federal crimes in northern West Virginia from 2010 to 2017, personally tried cases to jury verdicts, and argued before the Fourth Circuit Court of Appeals.

Led investigation of British banking giant HSBC for its failure to identify money laundering transactions related to Mexican drug trafficking, resulting in nearly $2 billion in penalties for HSBC.

Brokered $150 million settlement with McKesson Corp. for its filling of suspicious orders for prescription painkillers to West Virginia pharmacies.

Investigated and prosecuted cases of health care fraud, Stark Law and Anti-Kickback violations, as well as the improper dispensing and prescribing of narcotics.

Prosecuted physicians, pharmacists, pharmacies, hospitals, and drug trafficking networks, utilizing pen registers, wiretaps and other sophisticated investigative techniques.

Brooke County Prosecutor's Office
Assistant Prosecuting Attorney
July 2007 - August 2010 (3 years 2 months)
Wellsburg, WV

Criminal litigation with large caseload of felony, misdemeanor and juvenile matters.

Ohio County Prosecutor's Office
Chief Assistant Prosecuting Attorney
November 1997 - June 2007 (9 years 8 months)
Wheeling, West Virginia Area

Criminal litigation, to include hundreds of bench and jury trials as well as multiple cases before the West Virginia Supreme Court.

Education

West Virginia University

Juris Doctorate, Law · (1994 - 1997)

Ohio University

Bachelor's degree, Journalism · (1990 - 1994)