

Una Corbett

(b)(6)

Professional Experience

BIDEN-HARRIS TRANSITION TEAM

December-January 2020

Vetting Operations Team / Education Secretary Nominee's Team

Washington, D.C.

- Provide operational support and database management to facilitate the vetting process for potential members of the Biden-Harris administration.
- Work as scheduler to both the Education Secretary nominee and to the General Counsel.
- Conducted research and wrote memos for Second Gentleman Doug Emhoff's team and for the Deputy Chief of Staff to the President-elect.

PENNSYLVANIA DEMOCRATIC PARTY

June-November 2020

Biden for Pennsylvania Field Organizer

Lehigh Valley, Pennsylvania

- Recruited, trained, and managed a team of six local volunteer leaders and over fifty active volunteers.
- Flipped Northampton County, an Obama-Trump flip county, back to Democratic and drove up the Democratic vote margin in Lehigh County.
- Oversaw innovative voter contact efforts to reach Pennsylvanians during the current public health crisis.
- Created and ran virtual trainings on effective phone banking and canvassing, persuasion tactics, countering misinformation, relational organizing, and voter protection.
- Served as a liaison between the national campaign and local Democratic candidates and party officials.
- Member of Organizing Corps 2020, a DNC-led training effort for new organizers.

WOMEN'S SUFFRAGE CENTENNIAL COMMISSION

June 2019-May 2020

Communications and Research Intern (paid position)

Washington, D.C.

- Contributed research, communications, and programmatic expertise to the commission tasked by Congress with coordinating federal commemoration of the suffrage centennial, with a $4 million Congressional appropriation.
- Crafted toolkits, educational materials, social media posts, and website content designed to inform the American public about the suffrage movement.
- Adapted public programming in response to the COVID-19 pandemic, helping to facilitate a webinar series, virtual storytimes, and social media spotlights for online museum exhibits.

DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL COMMITTEE

June-August 2019

Intern, Office of the Chair and CEO

Washington, D.C.

- Provided scheduling, staffing, and other operational support to the DNC Chair and CEO.
- Assisted with the daily creation of Chair Tom Perez's briefing book.
- Wrote political briefing material and communicated with elected officials and DNC partners.
- Organized events, crafted toolkits, and reviewed grant applications for Seat at the Table, the DNC's outreach program to Black women organizers.
- Led a volunteer team to run guest check-in at the September Democratic Presidential Primary Debate.

HARVARD COLLEGE DEMOCRATS FOR KAMALA HARRIS

August-December 2019

Vice-Chair

Cambridge, M.A.

- Led Boston-area students to organize on campus for Senator Harris's presidential campaign.
- Co-founded group, recruited and trained student volunteers, and led a board of eight student leaders.
- Organized four trips to New Hampshire and Maine, five debate watch parties, and three phonebanks.
- Mobilized 50 students to provide support and visibility for Harris campaign at the 2019 New Hampshire Democratic Convention.

BELMONT-PAUL WOMEN'S EQUALITY NATIONAL MONUMENT

Summer 2018

Research Intern, Service Fellow at Harvard's Center for Public Interest Careers

Washington, D.C.

- Contributed research and design work to a traveling museum exhibit intended to celebrate the centennial of women's suffrage and spark conversations about women's rights.
- Wrote reports and online media content based on women's history research in the Library of Congress.
- Helped plan and execute several events at the museum honoring the contributions of trailblazing women, including ceremonies honoring Senators Amy Klobuchar and Joni Ernst and Chair Janet Yellen and a Women's Equality Day event featuring Justice Ruth Bader Ginsberg.

RESISTANCE SCHOOL

September 2018-May 2019

Outreach Fellow and Trainer

Cambridge, MA

- Created educational and social media content for an online platform that trains users on political organizing techniques like phone-banking, voter registration, and relational organizing.
- Trained Boston-area youth activist groups on how to incorporate voter registration into their work.
- Launched a social media campaign encouraging youth turnout in the 2018 midterm elections.

FEMINIST MAJORITY FOUNDATION

Summer 2017

Communications and Research Intern, Public Service Fellow for the Harvard Club of Washington, D.C.

Arlington, VA

- Wrote blogs and social media content and compiled daily press clips about current feminist issues.
- Contributed to a policy report on gender equity in education.
- Organized a day of intern-led healthcare and reproductive rights advocacy on Capitol Hill.

Education

HARVARD UNIVERSITY, Cambridge, MA

Graduated May 2020

A.B. magna cum laude with highest honors in field, Phi Beta Kappa

- History and Literature major with focus in American Studies, language citation in Spanish
- Honors: Thomas T. Hoopes Prize for outstanding scholarly work by an undergraduate, Barbara Miller Solomon Prize for senior thesis of high distinction in the History and Literature department
- Activities: Harvard Democrats, Senior Class Committee, Strong Women Strong Girls, The Seneca, Inc.

TRINITY COLLEGE DUBLIN, Dublin, Ireland

Semester Abroad, January-May 2019

- Completed coursework in history, English, and gender studies
- Published historical research paper "Memorializing the Magdalenes: Remembrance, Justice, and the Irish State" in the volume Memory, Resistance, and Justice (publication of the Consortium for Advanced Studies Abroad)

SKILLS: Spanish (professional working proficiency), political and historical writing and research, scheduling, event-planning, public speaking, Microsoft Office