Colorado Democratic Party
Regional Organizing Director
April 2016 - November 2016 (8 months)

I managed a team of eight Field Organizers who implemented a program that collected 5,980 voter registration forms, recruited 1,550 volunteers, and attempted contact to nearly 220,000 voters via phone and 118,000 via door-to-door canvassing efforts. Voting results on Election Day showed that our team completed a voter turnout program that yielded a 5% margin of victory in a swing county.

Hillary For America
Field Organizer
November 2015 - March 2016 (5 months)

As a Field Organizer, I was held accountable to completing weekly metrics for door-to-door canvassing and volunteer recruitment phone calls. During that time, I recruited, trained and managed 20 precinct captains for the caucus process. My team also contributed to developing a program called “Caucus Conmigo” – we provided materials and caucus training in Spanish to serve our constituents in East Las Vegas.

Home Instead

Caregiver

May 2015 - November 2015 (7 months)

San Antonio, Texas Area

I spent half a year advocating for three senior patients' emotional, physical, and mental needs. I was responsible for my patients' personal, home, pet, health, safety, security needs. During my time, I engaged senior patients in enjoyable activities and provided companionship. In addition, I assisted patients with medication reminders, grooming, bathing, toileting, etc.

National Hispanic Institute

Vice President of Business Administration

May 2008 - November 2015 (7 years 7 months)

Maxwell, Texas

In my role, as the Vice President for Business Affairs, areas of responsibility that fell under my office were Risk Management, Organizational Compliance, Human Resources, Accounting, Maintaining Records and Communication between Board of Trustees, Contract Management, Banking Relations and Account Management, Customer Relations and Customer Account Management. In addition, I managed three buildings and the 46-acre property. I managed a staff of four who assisted me in maintaining our property as well as completing the administrative tasks needed to finalize sales and record accounts receivable. My staff assisted me in reporting our financial statements to government and bank institutions, as well as our Board of Trustees. I worked closely with other directors to update our executives frequently. I monitored and reported to executives on staff productivity levels in field programs and on the property that is the organization's headquarters. I updated staff and sent company-wide communication. I worked with our Board Trustees and Executive Vice President to ensure the organization's policies were met. I assisted the organization's President in matters related to his schedule, projects, communication to our constituents, and management of staff. It was also my role to manage and monitor our annual $2.5 million budget.
